CALL TO WORSHIP (from Isaiah 12)

Linda Benson, Responsive

Surely God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid.

For the Lord God is our strength and our might.

God has become our salvation.

With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation.

And you will say in that day:

Give thanks to the Lord, call on God's name!

Make known God's deeds among the nations.

Proclaim that God's name is exalted!

Sing praises to the Lord, for God has done gloriously.

Let this be known in all the earth.

Shout aloud and sing for joy, O royal Zion,

for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel.

Let us worship God, our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer!

CALL TO CONFESSION

Linda Benson

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Unison

Eternal God,

in whom we live and move and have our being,

whose face is hidden from us by our sins,

and whose mercy we forget in the blindness of our hearts:

Cleanse us from all our offenses,

and deliver us from proud thoughts and vain desires,

that with reverent and humble hearts we may draw near to you,

confessing our faults,

confiding in your grace,

and finding in you our refuge and strength;

through Jesus Christ your Son. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF FORGIVENESS

Guitar chords do not correspond with keyboard harmony.

Although this ancient text has often been used at church dedications, the first stanza clearly refers to the people of God and the second to the place where they meet. The stately and soaring tune is aptly named for the edifice where the composer served as organist and is buried.

This text paraphrases Isaiah 11:6-9 in the first stanza, then reflects on that passage in widening frames of reference from self to all creation and identifies its "little child" with one born at Bethlehem. The tune is named for the composer's sister, his first piano teacher.
