CALL TO WORSHIP (from Psalm 19)

Les Leach, Responsive

The heavens are telling the glory of God,
and the firmament proclaims God's handiwork.

Day to day pours forth speech, and night to night declares knowledge.

The Torah of the Lord is perfect, reviving the soul.

The decrees of the Lord are sure, making wise the simple.

The instructions of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart.

The commandment of the Lord is clear, giving light to the eyes.

More to be desired are they than gold, even much fine gold;
sweeter also than honey, and the drippings of the honeycomb.

Let the words of our mouths

and the meditations of our hearts be acceptable to you,

O Lord, our rock and our redeemer.

Let us worship the Triune God!

This "communion calypso" (as the author called it) affirms the continuing presence of Christ both in the sacramental meal and in the lives of Christians. Because this text was written to fit a pre-existing tune, it has a rather telegraphic style that encourages pondering.

*Stanza 1 may be sung by a leader.

This Korean text accomplishes a rare feat in a Lord's Supper hymn by dealing with the full range of Christ's life from the Nativity to the Resurrection. The first and third stanzas are in the voice of the congregation, while the middle stanza recalls Christ's words of institution.

The World Communion Offering is one of three annual Special Offerings. The Churchwide Special Offerings of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) play an important role in defining what it means to be a connectional church, bringing together the diversity of the PC(USA) to focus and take faith-based action on shared concerns. The Offerings offer opportunities for partnership, learning, and witness and profoundly affect the life of the church as a collective witness to Jesus Christ's love for the whole church.

*Lord, we thank you for the gift of this global table where all are welcome, and none are strangers.
As we eat this bread and drink this cup, we pray that you would make us one in you, regardless of our languages, cultures or circumstances.
Amen.*

WORLD COMMUNION OFFERING

We are there...to share our table, to share loving kindness.

We join siblings in Christ across the globe in God's mission of welcome, justice and hope. We step beyond the boundaries of our neighborhood and into the life of the worldwide Church, learning to see God's image more clearly in one another.

In a world that often feels divided, this Offering helps us remember that we belong to one another, even to people we may never meet.

With our gifts, we witness this truth and celebrate what it means to belong to a global, connected Church shaped by God's endless love in Jesus Christ.

Thank you for your participation in the World Communion Offering.

If we all do a little, it adds up to a lot!
