CALL TO WORSHIP (Psalm 118)

Mary Marley, Responsive

O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good

His steadfast love endures forever!

I shall not die, but live, and recount the deeds of the Lord.

The Lord is our strength and our might.

He has become our salvation.

The stone that the builders rejected has become the chief cornerstone.

This is the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes.

This is the day that the Lord has made.

Let us rejoice and be glad in it!

Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed. Alleluia!

Let us worship God, our Creator, Redeemer, and Sustainer!

*GATHERING HYMN #232 Jesus Christ is Risen Today

*CALL TO CONFESSION

Mary Marley

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Unison

Almighty God,

in raising Jesus from the grave,

you shattered the power of sin and death.

We confess that we remain captive to doubt and fear,

bound by the ways that lead to death.

We overlook the poor and the hungry,

and pass by those who mourn;

we are deaf to the cries of the oppressed,

and indifferent to calls for peace;

we despise the weak, and abuse the earth you made.

Forgive us, God of mercy.

Help us to trust your power to change our lives and make us new,

that we may know the joy of life abundant given in Jesus Christ,

the risen Lord. Amen.

 Praise our God, ye heaven-ly host,

It seems likely that this beloved Easter text began in Latin and moved through German before reaching English, where it combined with the present tune in the emerging English evangelical style, a reaction to the restrained one-note-per-syllable psalmody that preceded it.

The good news of the Resurrection is retold in this lively hymn from Tanzania, blending 20th-century words with a traditional melody. In African call-and-response practice, the stanzas would ordinarily be sung by a soloist or small group and the refrain by the whole congregation.
